Tag Management Policy Review – Submission Date Extended

On November 7, 2018 the Office of the BC Container Trucking Commissioner (OBCCTC) issued a Bulletin calling for submissions as part of its Tag Management Policy Review. As outlined in the Bulletin, the OBCCTC is reviewing the Policy with a particular focus on options for policy amendments which facilitate greater I/O mobility and enhance the additional truck tag application and truck tag withdrawal processes. Focus is also be given to amendment options which support a tag system that satisfies the mandates of both the Port of Vancouver and the OBCCTC.

The closing date for written submissions addressing one or more of the terms of reference outlined on the OBCCTC's website was December 14, 2018.

In an effort to gather submissions from a wide range of stakeholders, the OBCCTC is extending its submission deadline to February 1, 2019. All interested parties are invited and encouraged to provide a submission, including drivers.

Please provide your written submission to the OBCCTC at the following email address:
